

Darrell Keeling

Chief Operating Officer

Darrell Keeling is Executive Vice President of Operations at AHF Products, bringing over three decades of industry experience in panels, dimension lumber, and hardwood. Before joining AHF, Keeling served as COO at Northwest Hardwoods, where he led transformative initiatives in operational efficiency, plant expansion, and supply chain optimization.

With a BA in Accountancy from Northern Arizona University, Keeling brings both analytical rigor and strategic vision to his leadership. He is a catalyst for innovation, focused on driving continuous improvement and operational excellence across AHF’s national footprint.
